

I think that this is an outrage and is corrupting our political process. As we all know, there are appropriate limits in the First Amendment world. We don't allow false advertisements, we limit on-air advertisements for political campaigns, we limit pornography and don't stand for defamation or libel. Sinclair should not be able to interrupt prime-time programming for a blatantly political attack ad that is parading as a documentary. The sources and information have been debunked. This is clearly one corporation, one that controls far too many stations, pushing a political agenda at the expense of our very democracy.
